Dear Harold,

Pursuant to your recent request, I herein submit the product of my love's labor. And it was well worth it as I'm sure you'll see. I suggest that you read the summary at the end first to get an overview since you might not want to spend time now with the details of the text. Incidently, the numbers mentioned in the summary refer to the numbered items in the text.

I'm sending a copy of this to Dick. If there is anyone else who you think would want copies, check with me first since I have 2 extra. As you must understand, while this certainly isn't secret info, there are some hands I wouldn't want it getting into.

Must go. I'm pooped! Have been at my desk for 3 days with this.

Best,

Howard
